1. On the GW Libraries web page (library.gwu.edu), click “Citation Tools”

2. You are now in the GW RefWorks LibGuide. It contains answers to all of your questions related to using RefWorks. To access RefWorks, you need to use your GW login…
3. Click the link, “Sign Up for a New Account”.

   Note: The grey login box to your GW Refworks account should ALWAYS list your institution: “George Washington University”

4. Fill out the entire form and click “Register”.

   * Remember your login name and password!

5. Your account is created! You can start organizing your research!

   Remember:
   Help is available in the RefWorks Libguide...
